Incorporating the Cornhill Training Course Scotland

Update: September 2010
For your prayerful interest and support

Dear Friends,

We Continue to be much encouraged in the work of the Scottish Cornhill Training Course, and to be very grateful for your continued prayer for us. To keep you up to date:

- New intake: we have 26 students on the roll for this year: 7 returning second-year part-time students (all men) 14 first-year part-time students (10 men and 4 women) and 5 full-timers (all men). We are now four weeks into the new term, and the students have settled in well.
- Most of the students who left us in June are gainfully employed, but please pray for two or three able people who are still looking to find the right kind of work and ministry.
- Please pray for Bryan Duncan, one of our Trustees, who has recently taken on a more focussed role in overseeing the administration and financing of Cornhill Scotland; and for Graeme Williamson, a recent ex-student with much experience in the world of finance, who is now our treasurer; and for David Airlie, our valued treasurer over the last five years, who is seriously ill.
- Please remember Willie, me and Bob in our regular teaching at the course (Bob is also giving evening classes currently on the Psalms), and Ann in the office doing all the day-to-day administration work.

It is a privilege and joy to us to be able to play a small part in moulding and shaping the fine eager students the Lord sends us. And we're so grateful to you for helping us with your regular prayers. Thankyou!

With loving good wishes,

Edward Lobb
