Incorporating the Cornhill Training Course & the Pastors' Training Course

Update: September 2012

For your prayerful interest and support

Dear Friends,

A few short paragraphs to keep you abreast of developments at Cornhill Scotland.

- The Cornhill Training Course. We look forward to welcoming twenty new students in September, six women and fourteen men. Of these twenty, eight are joining apprenticeship schemes at churches in Edinburgh, Glasgow and Aberdeen. We are delighted with such a good number. In addition, we have ten returning second-year students, four women and six men.
- The Pastors' Training Course. led by Andy Gemmill, is beginning its second year. We are expecting nine men this year; four new students and five returning second-year men. The first year proved most encouraging and our first five students were greatly strengthened by both the teaching and the fellowship they received. We look forward to three residential training weeks this coming year, where our visiting tutors will be Richard Pratt, Ralph Davis and Don Carson. We are so grateful for their willingness to help us. Don Carson will also be the main speaker at our Servants of the Word conference next June. We had an excellent conference in June 2012: the best ever I would say, with over a hundred attending.

And - thankyou so much for all your prayers for us. We are increasingly stretched as numbers increase and the work develops. But we are in good health, excellent morale and good heart. We have much to be thankful for, and we covet your continuing prayers.

With warmest wishes in Christ,

Edward Lobb
