

Cornhill Scotland

Update: March 2018

For your prayerful interest and support

Dear Friends,

We have much to give thanks to God for since we last wrote in January, as well as a few points for your prayers.

PLEASE GIVE THANKS FOR:

Our students who returned encouraged from their Cornhill Mission Weeks (4th -18th Feb) in a number of churches across Scotland - most had faced unfamiliar situations and had been stretched. We trust that that the churches were encouraged and that there will be lasting fruit.

His Word in My Hands Bible handling training days which took place in Dundee and Glasgow on the 10th and 17th March. It was great to have a number of Churches sending folk to these for the first time. Over the two weekends 116 people attended the days, almost half of them students, from 28 different congregations.

Edward Lobb who is feeling much better and returned to work after the half-term break.

PLEASE PRAY FOR:

Applications for CTC. We have had 9 applications to date which is encouraging - but please continue praying for churches as they appoint apprentices and trainees for the coming year, 2018-19.

The Pastors' Training Course and for Andy Gemmill as he leads this. We have a handful of ministers-in-training in the process making plans and applying for the course - please pray for them as they make decisions and seek provision for their needs during training.

SERVANTS OF THE WORD

Booking is open for Servants of the Word (5th-7th June, 2018), our summer conference for those in ministry and in ministry-training. Simon Manchester will give keynote addresses, Dick Lucas will join us once again to give a couple of expositions from the Psalms and William Philip give this year's expositions for expositors.

The booking form and further details are on the website.

Thank you once again for your interest and prayers,

Charles Alford,
Director of Operations
